It being found that the services of a surgeon were indispensible, Messrs. Lewis, but his engagements with other patents prevented his leaving town, and finding no other physician able to leave, a message was sent to Washington. Col. Tyler was at one time Commandant at the Washington Navy Yard, resigned at the opening of the late war, and entered the Confederate service. Since the close of the war he has been engaged in hotel keeping and other occupations, being at one time in charge of the dining room at the Virginia Midland depot in this city.

As the boat was crossing the river Captain G. saw the body affect, went after it, and brought it ashore to the foot of Fayette alley, whence it was at once removed to the undertaking cestablishment of Mr. William Demaine where it was prepared for burial, put in a coffin, and taken to the house of Mr. Henry Herbaer, where the parents of the deceased reside. The funeral took place at five o'clock this afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons, among whom were those who accompanied the deceased on his fatal aster .- No disorders, excepting the most deadly forms of lung disease, involve such a tremendous destruction of organic tissue as those which fasten upon the kidneys. Such maladies, when they become chronic-and none are so liable to assume that phase-completely wreck the system. To prevent this terrible disaster, recourse should be had, upon the first manifestation of trouble, to Hostetter's Bitters, which experience has proved to be highly effective as a means of imparting tone and regularity to the organs of urination, as well as to the liver, stomach and bowels. Another beneficial result of this medicine, naturally consequent upon its diuretic action, is the elimination from the blood of impurities which beget rheumatism, gout, dropsy, and other maladies. By increasing the activity of the kidneys, it augments the depurative efficiency of those organs, which are most important outlets for the escape of such impurities.
